"I just want to let you know that of all the personals sites I've seen yours has the best design and graphics. I'd say the whole site is visually and navigationally elegant. Where the other websites I've used can be confusing, so far your site has been a dream." 03/18/04

"I surfed just about every other singles site in existence, joining some along the way, but never finding peace or happiness in any of them. In one last try before completely giving up and resigning from internet singles services altogether, I examined Romantic Planet, and to my surprise it was the site I was always hoping to find.

Thank you, Romantic Planet, for everything. You are the very best service out there today and I have no need to surf any others, ever again." 02/26/03

"I just wanted to tell you that you have created the most beautiful uplifting and attractive dating site I have ever seen. And at the same time, you have given users the opportunity to tell things about themselves that are among the most important things a potential partner would like to know. Keep up the great work!!!! I love being on your site." 11/09/04

"I must say, this is the most advanced singles site I have ever seen! I am in awe of what you have done here to make it possible for one to find their perfect match! It's fabulous! I think you have made it possible to meet that someone you dream of, come true! Truly remarkable, my hat is off to you folks there. This site is by far one of the most respectable ones I have ever seen!" 09/28/05

"I have tried at least a dozen sites for singles, and the only two people I connected with were on Romantic Planet. One, I believe, is destined for me. We are already discussing marriage. I love the way you make it possible to see if there is real interest before you join by making available questions you can ask back and forth. I think the site itself is very high quality. I have referred many friends. Thank You!!" 08/03/05

"I made a connection with someone on your website. We sent messages back and forth and I was amazed at how much we had in common and how "right on" your matching system was. So, after only 48 hours of "connecting" with him on your site, we met face to face. We haven't been apart since and two years to the very day we met, he proposed and we're getting married next year!!! I can't thank you enough!!!! If it weren't for this site, we would have likely never met, as we lived in different states! Thank you, a million times!!!! You're the best!!!!" 06/29/05

"Our experience with Romantic Planet has been one of a kind. We both tried other similar web sites but what really brought us together was your exceptional "New Matches" feature based on similarities. We started emailing each other almost a year ago and decided to meet in person soon after that. It is unbelievable how identical we are. We have lots of things in common and now we are on our way to get married at the end of this year.

We have to confess that we were somehow skeptical about meeting other people online, however we have completely changed our minds after our experience with your website. We have no one to thank but you guys for bringing back hope and love to our lives. We strongly recommend Romantic Planet to any lonely soul in this world. It works! You people are the cupid of the 21st century." 05/09/05

"Chris and I were introduced last year on your site. We are engaged to be married and happier then we have ever been in our lives. Chris is my soul mate and my absolute best friend. You truly are the most reputable and classy e-love site. Thank-you, Nicole" 02/12/04

"Someone from Romantic Planet contacted me. She had been almost a 100% match from the beginning, according to your meter. Well we started to message each other and found that we were both so easy to talk to. Several weeks ago we decided to finally meet and just hit it off right from the beginning. It was as if we were meant to be together. We were able to communicate so well with each other. I don't know too many people who don't have some baggage going into a new relationship, and we were able to get it all out in the open and feel good about where we are.

It seems that the people Romantic Planet finds compatible are more closely matched than some of the other sites. Thanks." 02/21/05

I wanted to thank you Romantic Planet for having the best site yet. I love the postcards, love being able to choose who does and does not see my pic/profile, and am amazed at the quality of correspondence available through your site. I have never met such a wonderful match for me, and because of this, feel like telling the world that, yes, I met him online. Thank you very much for the quality and care. And I hope that others considering your site also find what they're looking for.

"I started out with match.com. I did not like the factory feel and after only five days on it, I was ready to get off and find something else. I was attracted to Romantic Planet's name in the search. When I saw this site, I liked the muted colors, calm design, option of postcards and the questions that were asked for one's profile. After ten days of emails, then two weeks of talking on the phone, Tom ventured to Colorado from California to see me. He spent ten days with me and we hit it off. Thanks for offering a creative and pleasant way of meeting a potential, lifelong mate." 09/02/03

"I was just about to give up hope that anyone worthwhile was going to reply to my introductions, and then one night at work I actually got an introduction. We sent messages back and forth thru the RP email system, and then began to chat on the instant messenger. Once Laura felt comfortable enough with me, she gave me her phone number, we talked several times before actually meeting. When we met, the electricity in the room could have powered the aircraft plant I work at." 08/12/03

"When I initially signed up, I got quite a few emails from various men. One person came up that caught my eye, so I paid for a week's subscription to get his contact information.

However, as the story goes, the guy I paid to contact, isn't the guy I ended up with. During those 7 days, another guy contacted me, Joe. We decided to meet for a couple of beers. That next Thursday we had lunch, Saturday we spent pretty much all day together, Sunday we spent the afternoon together and as of today we had lunch together, and he is cooking me dinner tonight.

Via your score, he's a 961/1000. I've met his parents, a couple of brothers, sister-in-law's, an aunt & his daughter, who he's raising, has taken to me like I've never seen. The only reason I can say that I thought this guy was worth talking to was the score you gave him comparing us. It made me a lot more interested in speaking to him.

I know that it has only been 5 days...but there is something special between us, and we both are thinking the start of something that has limitless possibilities and a future that I didn't think I would find with anyone, much less someone I met on the internet." 05/12/03

"I have found an awesome woman who has proven to be my match. We hit it off immediately. She is 20 years old with a little son, and I am 23 with a little girl of my own.

I planned a trip to see her and it took me 6 hours to get there and she made me feel like I could travel 6,000 miles to see her. People say it is hard for two people of different lifestyles (one being fast-paced and the other being country-style relaxed) to be compatible. Our relationship has proved that theory void. We are happy with one another and we are both willing to relocate.

Thank you all and keep up the great work. You have brought two people (who are 319 miles apart) together through the click of a mouse." 04/16/03

"I was so scared to place my pic and info for all to see. I just KNEW a single mom of four couldn't find her dream come true! Just a matter of days I got in contact with a man who placed his profile on here too (Jason). I emailed him with really NO expectations at all. We met about two weeks later and have fallen deeply in love! It is so clear to me that my move to Michigan from South Carolina was a calling! I have found a great job and the man of my dreams all in five months time!! I love this man so much and I look forward to spending my days and nights with him making him THE happiest man on the face of this planet!! THANK YOU SO MUCH!!" 12/11/02

"I met my dream guy on Romantic Planet. I'm still pinching myself 'cause it feels almost unbearably light and right.

Tad's writing turned me on from the first sentence of his profile and has continued to impress. When I met him in person, I couldn't believe how cute he is and how beautifully he moves: you mean this kind, smart, funny, literate man has an equally attractive physical aspect? And he smells good too? Woo!

We went to lunch and a fair on our first date. We wound up buying some Egyptian belly dancing music, playing it on his car stereo and dancing in the parking lot. He swept me off my feet with the most incredible, unique moves on this here romantic planet. We've spent a lot of time with one another since. It just keeps feeling better and better" 11/27/02
